Parent to Parent Connections

is a nonprofit support and information network created by parents to help individuals in their community.

We help and support families and individuals who are experiencing many kinds of challenges in their lives.

Parent to Parent Connections offers special events for families, parent workshops and educational opportunities throughout the year.

Here are just a few ways we have been able to help families and individuals:

- Through a focus on trauma-informed care, we provide guidance for coping strategies and assist families in creating sustainable positive change.
- We provide support and guidance to help empower people to become active participants in their lives.

What Can We Do For You?

Our Resource & Mentor Program can provide a mentor to serve as a trusted friend, guide and support person.

Our Behavior Health Resource Program can provide information for children and families in need.

"I have been very fortunate to attend the P2P workshops. The workshops have taught me to be more observant with my surroundings and how abuse and trauma can affect us. P2P has supported me with communicating and advocating for my children. They are great at giving constructive feedback and support every time I am in need."
